

The Chedi Muscat

Designed in the style of traditional architecture and offering breath taking views of gulf of Oman, The Chedi Muscat pampers its guest with a choice of modern rooms and private villas, offering access to 2 turquoise pools, a water garden, lush poolside cabanas and a private stretch of beach.

The 55 Serai rooms are housed in a four-storey Serai wing and provide magnificent views of the sea and mountains. The 60 Chedi Deluxe rooms are scattered among the one and two-storey wing surrounded by ponds.

The 36 Chedi suites are either two-storey or one-storey and consist of a bed and a sitting room. A low window allows guests to enjoy tranquil views of ponds and gardens. Recreational facilities at the hotel include an extensive spa, 2 swimming pools-one for adults only, while the other is for families with children-fitness centre, tennis courts and a well equipped library.

Dining option include The Restaurant that overlooks the garden and sea, serving from four display kitchen including Mediterranean, Asian, Arabic and Indian Cuisine. The Lobby Lounge offers a variety of snacks, refreshments and cocktails while The Chedi Poolside Cabana and The Serai Poolside Cabana serve an extensive hot and cold snack menu, tempting desserts and assorted refreshments.
